

Please continue to enforce the ban on inflight mobile phone usage. As a flight attendant, I have enough to worry about regarding passenger behavior at the moment, and adding mobile phones to the fray would make matters worse. Terrorists will use every means imaginable to create havoc, and allowing mobile useage would greatly assist them with coordination. Again, please DO NOT lift the inflight ban on mobile phone usage.